What Makes Customers Say WOW!

- Dubbed the "Disneyland of Dairy Stores" by the New York Times, Stew Leonard's is not only known for its farm fresh foods at a great value but also as a fun place for families to shop because of the costumed characters, scheduled entertainment, petting zoo and animatronics throughout the stores.
- Stew Leonard's culture is built around an acronym for S.T.E.W.: Satisfy the customer; work together as a Team; strive for Excellence in everything you do; and get the customer to say WOW.
- Unlike traditional grocery stores that sell an average 45,000 items, each Stew Leonard's store carries only 3,200 items, chosen specifically for their freshness, quality and value.
- 80 percent of the products sold in store are fresh – that is, brought in daily or prepared directly in-store.
- Because of Stew Leonard's commitment to customer service and the number of products prepared fresh daily, the store employs twice the number of employees as a traditional grocery store.
